

JINELLE HOOKER

Jinelle Hooker is the Supervisor of Youth Employment Services at OPP and is responsible for providing urban-youth with Career Competency development training. Jinelle graduated with a Bachelor's degree in Organizational Communication from the University of Medellin in Medellin, Colombia. Jinelle has been with OPP since 2004. She started as a Volunteer tutor; she was then hired in the Educational Support Department, Youth Intervention Specialist, and Youth Employment Specialist. She is now the Supervisor of Youth Employment Services. As the supervisor of employment services Jinelle lead one of OPP's biggest summer youth employment program serving over 300 youth placed throughout the greater Hartford area.