

Hartford Public Schools State of the Schools Address

Thursday, October 28, 2010

America's Choice at SAND School

The Bulkeley High School Marching Band opened the State of the Schools Address	Dr. Steven Adamowski addressed the audience on the previous, current and future state of the Hartford Public Schools system. Here he was emphasizing the three key points necessary to improve student achievement: Focus on Teaching, Use of Data and Change in Structures.	Dr. Steven Adamowski (Superintendent, Hartford Public Schools), Bob Rath (President/CEO, Our Piece of the Pie), Ada Miranda (Chair, Hartford Board of Education), Mayor Pedro Segarra (Mayor, City of Hartford) and Kelvin Roldan (Director of Strategic Partnerships, Hartford Public Schools). Bob Rath receiving award at the State of the Schools Address. Bob, on behalf of the entire staff of OPP, accepted the award that highlighted the successful partnership between Hartford Public Schools and Our Piece of the Pie.