Hartford, CT... Simsbury consultant John Sperger has joined the ranks at Our Piece of the Pie® (OPP®), Inc. assisting in development.

President/CEO Bob Rath and the OPP development staff conducted their first meeting with the experienced fundraiser January 10, 2011. "We're excited to have John join us and help us grow," Rath said.

John Sperger brings nearly 40 years of diverse business management, sales management and business development experience to OPP. Sperger is president of JHS & Associates with a B.S. in Economics from Villanova University. With a strong background in fundraising for non-profit organizations in the community, arts and education field, Sperger will surely provide much insight and support to the rest of the staff of OPP.

He recently retired from the Board of the Simsbury Historical Society where he chaired the Development Committee. John is also a member of the 180 voice Hartford Chorale, the HSO's chorus for major performances.

John has held positions previously as Vice President of Client Services for Right Management; Director of Business Development for The Center for Professional Development, University of Hartford; Vice President, Business Development for Lee Hecht Harrison; Vice President, OFI Contract Interiors; and Vice President of Daqui Belding Partners.
