

OPP Featured in CPTV Documentary!

May 5, 2011

Attention Supporters:

May 3rd at 9 p.m. on CPTV marked the premiere of Education vs. Incarceration; The Real Cost of Failing our Kids. This powerful documentary, brought to you by the Connecticut State University System with additional support through The Vince and Linda McMahon Family Foundation and Travelers, brings real issues with Juvenile Justice and Education taking place in Connecticut to the forefront.

OPP is featured in the documentary with one of its youth, Dante James' story being told with the support of Vice President of Pathways, Hector Rivera describing how OPP stepped into his life and helped give him the tools he needed to get back on track.

Please share your feedback on this topic through our website (www.OPP.org) or on our Facebook Page (<http://www.facebook.com/OurPieceOfThePie>). Help us advocate for change within our state to make Connecticut a safer and better educated environment!
